DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1 – 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

3. Claims 1 and 13 refer to “not aligned” contacts or “mismatched” contacts. The specification does not show how such contacts are formed nor is it shown what the degree of mismatch/alignment is.

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 – 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. Claim 1 shows “points” that are coincident with the active device contacts but claim 6 states that connecting comprises patterning traces. Since traces are taken to mean wiring patterns on a substrate, it is not understood how the traces can connect to these points.

4. Claim 10 refers to a thickness greater than a minimum lasing thickness. What is this thickness?

Art Unit: 2814

5. With respect to claims 1 and 13 it is not understood what the not aligned/mismatch is. Is there a specific number?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

7. Claims 1 – 3, 6 – 8 and 12 – 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gaul.

8. Gaul shows a method of interconnecting two chips (see Figures 5, 6 and column 10, line 43 et seq.) using an intermediate chip or an interposer. The vias are metal lined (column 4, line 29) or filled (column 5, line 7). It would be obvious to provide any further connections which are necessary to connect the two chips.

9. With respect to claims 17 and 18 it would be an obvious extension to apply the method to the mounting of two chips using the same technique.

10. Claims 4, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gaul in view of Yagi et al.

11. Yagi et al. show the connection of a carrier (Figure 2H) to a CCD (Figure 3) or a laser (Figure 4) and only show the connection of the devices to the outside world schematically. Note that the laser has a spacing from the carrier. It would have been obvious to apply the Gaul technique to attach the Yagi et al. structure to provide processing/driving circuitry.

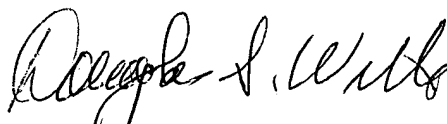

Art Unit: 2814
